THE EVENING STAR. WEDNESDAY March 10, 1890.

The Virginia Scanpal—Discovery of the Alleged Stayer of Her Own Infant.—A special dispatch to the Baltimore Gazette from Front Royal, Va., March 9, says: The developments growing out of the infanticide case, involving a leading family in a shocking scandal, continues the absorbing topic here. Miss Mollie Mitchell, against whom the coroner's jury returned a verdict charging her with the murder of her filegitimate child, and who disappeared from her father's residence yesterday, was discovered to-day concealed in a neighbor's residence, in a third-story room. She is placed under surveillance and will be tried for the crime. The principal witnesses in the case were Dr. M. L. Garretson, who was summoned to attend the unfortunate girl after child-birth, but from whom all evidence of the birth was concealed. The doctor, however, suspected that she had given birth to a child, but, as requested, made only an external examination of the patient. The evidence of Eliza Scoggins, a nurse, was however, of a more positive character as to the fact of Miss Mitchell's having given birth to a child, and other corroborative testimony was given. The jury returned a verdict that, in their opinion, Miss Mitchell gave birth to the infant at the house of Miss Ann E. Scoggins, that said infant was born alive, and that it came to its death by drowning or other violent means at the hands of said Mollie Mitchell, believed to be the mother of said child. The family of Miss Mitchell are of excellent social standing here, and much sympathy has been expressed for them in the distressing affair.

A MARRIED PENNSYLVANIAN FLEES TO MARY-LAND WITH ANOTHER MAN'S WIPE.—Special cor-respondence of the Battimore Gazette from Hagerstown, March 9, says: Yesterday morning a telegram was received here from Waynes-bero', Pa., informing the authorities that a man by the name of Jacobs had eloped with another man's wife (a Mrs. Hahn), and instructing the officers to arrest them if they came this way. oy the name of Jacobs had eloped with another man's wife (a Mrs. Hahn), and instructing the officers to arrest them if they came this way. The case was placed in the hands of officer James H. Harley, who at once started in search of the fugitives. He learned that a man and woman answering the description of the parties had arrived at the Hoover House at the unusual hour of 4 a. m. yesterday (Monday) morning, and left again at 6:10, taking the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for the west. Mr. Harley took the 9:25 a. m. train, and arrived at Weaverton just in time to overtake the runaways. He returned with them at 1 p. m., and took them before Justice Bretzler, who heard the case and committed them to the care of Sheriff Zeigler. Soon after they were committed the husband and fatherpaying all the costs in the case and the reward of $25 to Mr. Harley, they took Mrs. Mary C. Hahn home with them and left Mr. A. B. Jacobs in jail. He will he taken to Chambersburg, Pa, to-day. This foolish couple walked from Waynesboro' here. Mrs. Hahn left her husband and three children behind and Mr. Jacobs has a wife and four children.

KEARNEY DEFYING THE VIGILANTS—Manifesto of "The Citizens' Protective Union,"—The Citizens' Protective Union,"—The Citizens of the people of San Francisco and the state of California, which will appear in the Call to-day, declaring the object of the organization to be—first, the preservation of public peace; second, protection of life and property; third, restoration of confidence in the security of life and property from all violence, and fourth, the resuscitation of legitimate commerce, industries and business of the people. The manifesto, which is signed "By order of the council," expresses the determination of the union to suppress all violence, and appeals to all good citizens to range themselves on the side of law and order. It is understood that the address is put forth by a body representing the wealth and business interests of the city, including some who have been prominent in times past in measures for the preservation of the city from the designs of the disorderly and criminal element. During yesterday about 150 men were engaged obtaining signatures to the roll of the Citizens' Protective Union with decided success. To a very considerable extent the project finds favor with the business classes, though mang question the wisdom or necessity of such a movement. Kearney was interviewed last night relative to the vigilance committee. He is definant and evidently looks on the present excitement as furnishing him with fresh weapons. Yesterday morning he bought a Winchester repeating-fife, which he keeps in his sleeping-room, and both his brothers, who live with him, are provided with revolvers and shot-guns. KEARNEY DEFYING THE VIGILANTS-Manifesto

PRESIDENT GARRETT ARRAIGNED FOR COM-TEMPT.—Argument was heard in the supreme court in New York city yesterday on three mo-tions in the telegraph war cases. One was to punish Mr. Garrett for contempt in refusing to obey the injunction order obtained on behalf of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company, another was to have the injunction proceedings dismissed on the ground of irregularity of ser-vice, and a third was to continue the injunction order already obtained. In the proceedings to order already obtained. In the proceedings to punish Mr. Garrett for contempt and for his retusal to obey the injunction order directing him not to interfere with plaintiff's wires on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio road, counsel on behalf of Mr. Garrett read affidavits on behalf of Mr. Garrett read affidavits sustaining the motion to vacate the injunction and to dismiss the complaint and proceedings as irregular. Mr. Farrrett's affidavit sets forth the proposals made by the president of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company and his refusal to allow the latter company to build their wires unless it was distinctly understood that any contract entered into should be declared ended at the option of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. Mr. Garrett then sets out the matter of service of the injunction order on him, which he claims carrent then sets out the matter of service of the injunction order on him, which he claims was illegal. Affidavit is also made by Superin-tendent Tinker, setting out the arrangements in ade between different companies, and he also denies all knowledge of any injunction order. Counsel on behalf of the plaintiffs argued in favor of the validity of the service of papers and read affidavits in support thereof.

A Young Englishman Disappears.—Alex-Parks, a youth 17 years of age, has been missing from the British steamship Minnie Thropp, lying at elevator B, Locust Point, since last Monday night. The youth accompanied his uncle from England to this city, where they had been spending their time on the steamship. The last seen of young Parks was about 9 o'clock on the night of his disappearance, when he left his uncle at Leon's variety theater, Locust Point, to return to the Thropp. It is supposed that in so doing Parks fell overboard and was drowned. The Thropp sails to-day and the lad's uncle is very anxious, not caring to return to England until the mystery surrounding his nephew's disappearance is cleared up.—But. Gazette, 10th. The KEMPER COUNTY (MISS.) MURDER TRIAIS. The case against virgil and Houston Gully in the circuit court of Kemper county, Miss., for the murder of John P. Gilmer was taken up Menday. Henry, Virgil and Houston Gully were all indicted together for this offence, but on motion of the state a severance was granted. The two latter were elected to be tried first, and next Thursday was set for the trial of the former. The special venue of seventy-five that had been summoned and the two petty juries for the week were, on Monday, exhausted, and out of the number only two jurymen have been obtained, both negroes. The court then ordered the sheriff to summon 100 good and discreet men obtained, both negroes. The court then ordered the sheriff to summon 100 good and discreet men to appear and answer with reference to their qualifications as jurymen in this case. It will be a difficult matter to get a jury on account of the notoriety of the case and the fact that almost every man in the county has formed or expressed an opinion in reference to the guilt or innocence of the accused. Mrs. Gilmer, widow of John P. Gilmer, the deceased, reached De Kalb yesterday from Washington.

SUICIDE A WEEK AFTER MARRIAGE.—Near Middlebourne last Thursday a young man named Charley Thompson, about 21 years old, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head with a shot-gun. He was married a week before to a Miss Emma McHenry. His wife was visiting her parents, who lived near, and he started in the evening to take her home. His father, who was absent from home, while returning discovered the liteless remains of his son in the path. No cause is known for the rash act, but a letter was found making disposition of the property of which he was possessed. West Union (W. Va.) Record.
